"The underclass routine continued as smoothly as in past years, with the exception of the Juniors who had to adjust to half of the class attending the JVS."

"The Sophomores, expecting to have class rings to wear, were disappointed by delays."

"The Freshmen adjusted well to the high school atmosphere as the year progressed."

The scenes are over,
the cast is divided,
the costumes are hung up forever.
What comes next is up to you.
Look at this brief change of scenery
as not a finale but only an intermission
of life, in which you play the lead.
Play your part well and you will become your own star.
